

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

AGRICULTURE, WATER, AND ENVIRONMENTAL TECHNOLOGIES

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE CAREER DEVELOPMENT FACT SHEET

Caring for the world through the nurture and development of plants, animals, and the environment. By studying a variety of programs, including sustainable farming practices, forestry conservation, urban gardening, and keeping water safe for drinking. You will learn to maintain and sustain a world for current and future generations to share.

PROGRAMS AND CERTIFICATES OFFERED AT CITY COLLEGE

- Sustainable Urban Agriculture
- Urban Farming Professional
- Urban Gardening
- Organic Gardening for the Culinary Arts
- Agriculture
- Sustainability

EMPLOYMENT TREND

12th

Largest farming community out of 3,000 counties nationwide. Additionally, San Diego has more small farms (less than 10 acres) than any other county in the nation.

SAMPLE OF CAREER POSITIONS:

Agricultural Managers

Farmers

Inspectors

Testers

Agricultural Equipment Operators

Agricultural Equipment Operators

SAMPLE OF LOCAL EMPLOYERS:

U.S. Forest Services

Kellogg Garden Products

GRID Alternatives

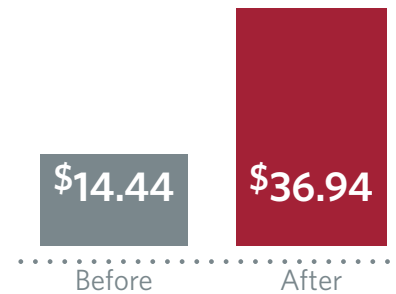

LaBrucherie Produce

San Diego Water Authority

Stehly Farms Market

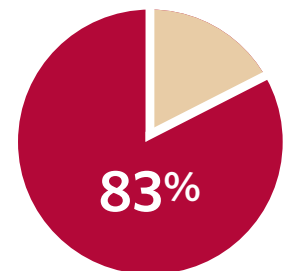

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT OUTCOMES

Hourly wages before and after coursework

= 61% Increase

What did students do after completion?

83% of respondents who obtained either a certificate or an apprenticeship attained a liveable wage.

Most common certificate, license or apprenticeship obtained: Plant Science